THE FALL OF KINSTON. The news of the fall of Kinston was brought to Hampton Roads by the Monitor Montauk, and thence o'clock telegraphed to the Navy Department. THE PRESIDENT AND THE OFFICE-SERERES.

The President opened the doors of the White House again to-day, and of course was ravished by a crowd of hungry office-seekers. FROM GRANT.

Reports from Grant's lines represent the roads timproving and the "Anseonds," as unusually ithe and agile.

THE SIX HUNDRED MILLION LOAN.

The Secretary of the Treasurg has requested Jay Cooke to act as the Government agent to populurize the $600,000,000 loan. Its terms will be the same as those of the Seven-Thirty loan, save in the period at which it will be converible. Only about $150,000,000 will be included in the first issue. The rest will be held in reserve by the Secretary, to be put out—if ever—only in subordination to the interests, and strictest needs of, the country. The full details of the loan will be given to the public in a day or two.

THE SMALL-POX. The small-pox has become so prevalent a Fortress Monroe that the mails are not landed.

GOLDSBOROUGH. Goldsborough is believed to be in possession of Gon. Schofield's forces.

replies:

"We cannot but regard the denial as a puerile at tempt at a technical evasion of law, and searcely worthy the head of an Executive Department.

The attempt to prove that Congress only included in the last resolution such books and documents as were excepted from heing placed under your charge by the resolution of 1859, is not warranted by the terms of either resolution, and, it must be well known to you could not have been so intended by Congress.

"Scrupulousness on the part of an executive officer, in rot over stepping the limits of law, is at all times to be commended, and especially in these times, but an attempt to disabely a law of Congress—first, because it is 'impracticable,' and second, when made practicable heyond all doubt, by other excuses, is with all respects a very questionable scrapulousness.

"We heg to say, in conclusion, that if the resolution of the 37th Congress, which you did allow to be proper, but failed to execute, covered the books and documents in your Department, it repeated all authority on your part to dispect of them, otherwise than as therein directed, and you having received no subsequent authority therefor, we protest against the removal of the whole or any part them."

Each IMORE Wednesday, March 15, 1865.
Capt. McDonald of the light-ship at Smith's Point, who was captured nearly a year since by the Rebels, has just returned home, after a long imprison accounts of the heartors of the Rebel prisons. He learnt from one of the corperals, who had charge of the matter that from the loth of October to the last of January, 5,875 of our men died out of the 10,000 imprisoned there in services to attend the hospital, and showed evident symbols for the sufferer, doing what little they could, dropping occasionally words of pity, indicating that they were in heart Unionists, but lieble officers would permit nothing to be done to mitigate their sufferings.

Sometimes a little straw, or other litter was obtained for the sick but such was the accumulation of filth and the want of nourishing food, that doath was the only relitef for the sick. Thousands of our men, dying with hunger, lay out night after night without sheliter, and nearly naked, through bitting frost and cold rains.

In the language of Capt. McDonald, the horrors of the place can never be written, and scarcely be credited when read.

An order from Major-Gen. Palmer, published this morning announces that by the Act of Congress passed on the 3d of March, the wives and children of colored men who have enlisted, or who may enlist in the army, are free. It promises the enforcement of their rights by the military authorities, if necessary, and areas loyal men and women of Kentucky to encourage the enlistment of colored men in the army, and afterward to recognize them as upholders of the Government and defenders of their homes; and it exhorts them to exercise Kentucky's accustomed benevolence and charity toward the helpless women and children thus made irec. Gen. James S. Brishin has been appointed to superintend the organization of white and colored troops in Kentucky.

The Anti-Slavery Amendment John P. Stockton U. S. Scanter.

Thertos, N. S., Wednesday, March 15, 1865.

In the Senate the debate on the Constitutional Amendment, Mr. Randolph of Budson denied that voting against it placed himself and others in the position of defending an institution, the existence of which he deprecated and desired to dispose of as rapidly as humanity and a due regard to the rights of all permited. Mesers, Ollandler of Morris, and Holman followed on the same side. The question was then post-poned until to-morrow. poned until to-morrow.

TO PLACE-PATRIOTS.

It may interest place-patriots to know that while the President will weed out his official garden as time and opportunity offer, he does not contemplate any general or sweeping change of officials throughout the country.

SECRETARY USHER.

A difficulty that may prove very Serious for Secretary Usher, in office or out, has been brewing for some time between him and Congress. He hange on to the books. The Thirty-seventh Congress, by join resolution, directed him to distribute in a certain way a mass of broken and even sets of books and documents stored for safe keeping in the Interior Department in 1859. He dodged feompliance by saving that he couldn't make an equitable distribution—that that wasn't practicable. Congress determined that it wasn't practicable. Congress which appointed the Congress which appointed the Congress which appointed it is dead. To the which Newgate law and strorneys' logic the Joint Committee, knocking at his door for the books, is dead, and without anthority, for the present host the Congress which appointed it is dead.
